RFA Title: Sexual Assault Prevention and Response
Application Deadline: March 27, 2020

Questions and Answers

Question 1:	I'm confused about whether the Workplan with up to 5 goals is for the first year only ("You may have up to 5 goals/objectives for the 12 month budget period"), or if the workplan should cover all five years, with one goal and several activities per year.
-------------	--

Answer:	Your application's Workplan should focus primarily on the first year of your project. While we certainly encourage you to provide details on the entire scope of your proposal, there should be an emphasis on the goals and activities of the first year of the project.

Question 2:	Can we propose to work with 2 or 3 populations in the same grant (e.g., adults, youth, parents, providers, etc.)?

Answer:
---------	--

Question 3:	Will proposals to work with both issues related to education/prevention and systems/policy be considered or must we choose one or the other?
-------------	--

Answer:	The primary focus of the RFA is on education, training, and prevention, so these areas must be addressed in any proposal. Applicants are encouraged to include systems change and policy recommendations activities to foster long-term impact and sustainability.
